

The Sam Azeez Museum of Woodbine Heritage Memories of 2005

Dear Friends,

As we have already embarked on the new year of 2006, I want to take this moment to thank you for your interest and support and to wish each of you continued good health and success.

A focus at the Sam Azeez Museum of Woodbine Heritage is to shine a new light boldly on the inspiring history and diversity of those who came before us who continue to influence our lives.

Last year, many joyful moments united us as we discovered and rediscovered the ties that have bound generations through their experiences traced to the very beginning of Woodbine's history. As you will see in the photographs on our 2005 memory collage, we hosted a variety of visitors seeking cultural and educational enrichment through our facility. Students, educators, parents, civic groups, religious schools and churches...all were touched by the majesty of the history of Woodbine which is retold every day at the Sam Azeez Museum of Woodbine Heritage.

As we go forward with even greater goals for the New Year, we ask you for your continued interest and support. Our motto for this year is "We celebrate survival and victory every day at The Sam Azeez Museum of Woodbine Heritage."

Stay tuned, you will be hearing from us again soon.

Shalom,

Jane Stark
